YOU ARE A MARVEL

...You are a marvel. You are unique. In all the years that have passed, there has never been another child like you. Your legs, your arms, your clever fingers, the way you move.

You may become a Shakespeare, a Michaelangelo, a Beethoven. You have the capacity for anything. Yes you are a marvel.

...You must work--we must all work--to make the world worthy of it children.

Pablo Casals

Dear Ryan,
Congratulations and best wishes for continued success to our first "marvel." We love you, son.
With our love and support always,

Dad, Mom, Evan & Kara

From a baby in arms to a beautiful young woman in cap and gown - watching and waiting to see what will unfold. It is not a secret. Trust God and he will direct your path. He has a plan for you, plans for welfare and not for calamity - to give you a future and a hope.

He loves you Aly.

We all love you and are so proud of you.

The Lord be with you.

Luke Dog,

“16 Hoopies in a box...”

Luke, you've got problems that can't be solved, but don't feel bad, it's not your fault. Josh the POWER is the one who dropped you on your head. Can you smell what Josh the POWER is cooking? I'm proud of you, and wish you the very best in what you do. Congratulations! - Josh the POWER

“Zach and Josh are still playing those dumb video games.”

“Who's that knocking at our door?...Yesh! In the immortal words of Phil Rizzuto... “Holy Cow!” Truth be told, I'm in awe of you Luke. You have truly evolved into an intelligent, funny and interesting man. That's right, I said MAN. I can't believe my littlest bro is a MAN. I remember roller hockey in the driveway...and I mean “roller hockey” as in 4 metal wheels, kickball games on 2nd St., and tennis ball-baseball games in the backyard. There are really too many memories to list...and every one as important as the one before it.

“Where do worms come from”

Now that we're grown, our “games” may change. We'll ponder history and politics, jobs and our growing families. I look equally forward to that. We may not share our daily lives anymore, but everyday you are a part of who I am. Growing up with you and Josh made me realize the thing most important in life...family. I couldn't be any prouder to be your brother. Be strong. Be yourself. Be healthy. Be happy. Congratulations! - Zach & Melissa

“What time can we wake you up on Christmas morning?”

To our youngest son, Luke, the great conciliator, the clown, the family glue,

You're a great friend to us all and we're very proud of the person you've always been (in spite of the kindergarten “car-stoning” and your “po-weese” episode). You always do what you know is right. Your thoughtfulness touches many people and the world needs more people like you.

Along with your brothers, you're one of the bright lights of our lives and we love you more than life. May you always continue to be who you are and find happiness, however you define it, in whatever you do.

With all our love and pride,

Mom and Dad

Jeffrey Rott

Dear Jeff,

Your time at Bloomsburg has passed by quickly. You are well prepared to move on and rise to the occasion. Having given up your sword and shield long ago, you are now armed with knowledge.

We feel very fortunate to have such a wonderful son and brother.

Congratulations on your successes - past, present and future.

Love Mom, Dad, Dan and Mark

Stefanie Zubrick

Dear Stefanie,

Well, punkin, you made it! As you take the scenic route through life remember to always follow your heart and imagination. Exciting things are ahead of you. We wish you all of your hopes and dreams come true. We love you so...

Hugs and kisses

Mom and Dad, Grandma, Aunt Rita and Uncle Bob, and your favorite fans, Grace, Kate and Tess

Shannon Colace

Wasn't it yesterday you were six, playing with dolls and greeting each day full of wonder? Now you are graduating college. Another milestone passed and another wonderful journey to begin. Have you made us proud? The answer to that question is: Every single day! Congratulations Shannon
